Please see the NSW Brewers Guild website (http://nswbrewersguild.asn.au) for details of the current locations.

> This competition is open to all brewers whatsoever, without restriction. Entries will be categorised into two separate divisions:

- Non-Commercial beers not fermented on licensed premises and entered under the name of the brewer or brewers. Includes all other beers not made as commercial beer regardless of where the wort was made ie at home, in a brewshop, at 'Brew on Premises' locations or obtained from a commercial brewery as a Beer Kit, Fresh Wort Pack. The entry fee for noncommercial beers shall be $7 per entry, inc. GST.

CONTAINERS:

Each entry is to be a minimum of 2 x 330 ml bottles (or equivalent) to provide sufficient samples for two rounds of judging. Any size bottles or kegs will be accepted provided that the minimum quantity of beer is supplied. One sample shall be used to provide feedback to the brewer on how well the beer conforms to the entered style and to determine the Category placing's. The highest scoring beer of each Category will advance to the Best of Show taste-off where the second sample will be required. Upon receipt all bottles become the property of the NSW Brewers Guild. Entrants will be required to arrange for the return of any Kegs entered, at their expense.

JUDGING:

All judging will be conducted under the Head Judge's supervision by the blind taste method and will be carried out by experienced beer judges appointed by the Head Judge. All entries will be impartially evaluated against the style guidelines published on the NSW Brewers Guild website. Please read these guidelines very carefully and make sure the class / Category / style details quoted on your entry form and bottle labels correct. Each Brewer may enter a maximum of 2 entries per Class (e.g. 2 x Pale Ales, 2 x Dark Lager etc).

Organisers and judges will take no responsibility for beers entered into the wrong class / style. The Head Judge's decision is final and no dispute will be entered into in any circumstances whatsoever.
