RULES OF COMPETITION

The Six String Home Brew-off is open to amateur home brewers. Beers made at a commercial brewing facility using commercial equipment or with assistance of a professional brewer will be disqualified. Entries must be made by home brewers at their home.

Cost of entry is $5 per entry and a maximum of 4 entries per person.

Entries will be limited to the first 80 paid entries. Entries are open from Thursday 22nd June and bottles must be delivered to Six String Brewing Co 4/5 Chiltern Road Erina, no later than 5pm Sunday 30th July

Each entry is to be submitted as two bottles, minimum 330ml, Max 750 ml. Bottles must be free of identifying marks. Bottle caps should be plain. Bottle must have a bottle ID tag with category and style attached by rubber band – not glue, string or tape. Brewers Id will be provided at the time of entering.

Entries will be judged based on the BJCP Style guidelines. Entrants are required to select the category and subcategory ??? for their entries. The categories have been limited to assist in limiting the number of competition entries. If you are not familiar with the BJCP, please read the guidelines for your entry style, where commercial examples are included.

Judging will be a blind tasting and bottles must be unidentifiable in any way. Judges will include Six String Brewers plus experienced Home brewers. Brewers will receive a copy of the judges scoring sheet for their brews entered. This can be collected from the Six String Brewing Co tasting room the following week.

Judging for the Six String Home Brew-off categories will take place of Friday 4th August and Best in Show judging on Saturday 5th August during the international Beer day celebrations. Winners will be announced on this date at an award ceremony, if brewers are not in attendance they will be notified and prizes sent to them after the event.

Prizes will be given for 1st 2nd and 3rd for each category and Grand champion (best of show). The Grand champion will have the opportunity to brew their recipe at Six String Brewing Co.

Failure to observe the competition rules will result in disqualification of the entry or in some cases the brewer.
