Bubble wrap peanuts air bladders!

It was loose-ish in the box when it showed up

Let me finish unpacking the rest of it

Fragile stickers, do not stack stickers.

Ugh. That is crazy. I know things shift and settle while in transport but ugh!! that thing was snug!

I frakin pray That's the only thing that was damaged.

I did find the missing riser for the bottom of the foot. It's cracked off but somewhat clean

I'll update you as I get through the other three boxes

Okay so a few more things.

The bottom of the base is cracked through on the bottom edge about 5 to 6 inches long.

The right shoulder of the torso has a lip that's cracked off.

Overall, there are a bunch of little chips and cracks, but they are cosmetic. They can be touched up with a bit of work

So other than the foot nothing massive. The fingers are all ok. Head, nothing broken I two?

Ok! That's why we insured
this sucker!!!

Take photos email them to me and we can start a claim with ups.

My biggest concern by far is that damaged foot. It's a load bearing area of the statue and its spider cracked bad.
Loose pieces bouncing inside the leg.

I'll email you some photos in a moment. How is this going to work? Will they be able to credit enough money back to make the repairs?

Dude those photos (emailed)

come though on your end

Did*

Yes, they did.
And like I said most of the weight is carried by the other leg... It will be fine.

Thu, Jun 25, 7:03 PM

Kevin, I spoke with oddy this am, I'm headed over after work today to go over the claim.
He said I maybe should file
for 2damaged boxes.
I don t know how you feel about that?
The base was cracked pretty badly.

2 is fine, The base is less of a concern to me

I think will have an easier time getting covered on two boxes instead of three

That's 1k back to you.

Just sent two long emails regarding the damaged packages to UPS, the claim is underway. It looks like the refund will be going back to you once everything gets sorted out. you and I can work it out from there.

I'll keep you posted of any other pertinent details

Not a problem Kevin.
FYI, I'm ok with a 99:1 split!
Lmao.

Mon, Jun 29, 4:17 PM

UPS should be reaching out to you tomorrow about the results of the damage claim.

I played it conservative ($650 total) on the claim to ensure things go smooth

iMessage

Keep me posted. further UPS updates will be going to you, as the sender. You may have to contact your UPS store. UPS has been unclear about how they're going to get a hold of you Ok... Sounds good. They'll get a hold of Oddy he'll contact me.

Hey man, just got off the phone with UPS . you're going to have to either call the UPS store or UPS corporate with the tracking numbers in question. They said they submitted some info to the shipper on July 1. They won't tell me anything, and said the inquiry needs to come from you

Irritating, I know

No worries.
Maybe they got a hold of oddy.
I'll check in today.

I have yet to receive an email or phone call

Sun, Jul 5, 3:50 PM

It was beyond the 3" spec.

Sat, Jul 11, 10:10 AM

When did UPS say they are getting back to you with the results of the re-review?
When I talked to them
yesterday morning, they said they didn't hear anything about reviewing it again.
That info could've been wrong, but I don't know.

They told me an oddy it would be "a couple of days"

We can settle this.

Obviously I'm having trouble coming up with the money. Hence why I'm offering you busts. I sell these for $175 each Yeah, I got it. Unfortunately the busts just aren't quite a fit for me.

😏 hmm. Well all I'm asking is for you to give me a little more time. Perhaps I'll have all the money by the deadline you've given me. Trust I know you've been totally cool. I'm not going to screw you over.

iMessage

I know you've been totally cool and obviously I'm not skipping out on you its just been kinda tough.

They just aren't quite right for my collection. Since the 150 came through, I can give you an extra week for the remaining. Hoping that helps

It does. And I hope you know that I'm not being an ass. It's been rough.
